insider's picks

Chicago wardrobe stylist Jennifer Oppenheimer (312-208-8269) does it all for her clients: handpicks vintage clothes and accessories, brings order to the unruliest closets, and sells castoffs at consignment shops.

My favorite place to shop for ...

jeans is Bottega Contessa

(1 E. Delaware Pl., 312-944-0981) for styles that are tough to find elsewhere in the city, including Just Cavalli jeans, which are pricey—around $200 a pair—but have an amazing fit.

tops is Chasalla (70 E. Oak St., 312-640-1940) and Calypso (50 E. Oak St., 312-649-9934). Chasalla has supersexy tops you can dress up or down, while Calypso always has wonderful and affordable cashmere knits.

special occasion clothes is Ikram (873 N. Rush St., 312-587-1000) because it has unique, hard-to-find designers from Europe as well as great accessories and interesting vintage jewelry.

shoes is Josephine (1405 N. Wells St., 312-274-0359) for that one special pair you splurge on.

bags and accessories is Couture Club (1971 N. Fremont St., 773-244-0917) for superb vintage bags, shoes, fur pieces, and scarves.

beauty products is Barneys

New York (25 E. Oak St., 312-587-1700) for Kieh'l's, Aesop, and Nars. Bravco Beauty Centre (43 E. Oak St., 312-943-4305) has all the imported and luxury haircare lines at a discount.

bargains is the sale room at Ultimo (114 E. Oak St., 312-787-1171). I just saved 80 percent on two skirts.

My favorite place to get my hair cut is Salon Duo (1400 N. Lake Shore Dr., 312-664-8710). Scott Wilker is great at keeping my cut current.

My favorite place to go after a day of shopping is Clarke's

Restaurant and Pancake House in Lincoln Park (2441 N. Lincoln Ave., 773-472-3505) for chicken fingers and chocolate malts. For a chic lunch, I go to Le Colonial (937 N. Rush St., 312-255-0088) and order the mango chicken with curry sauce.
